"You are instantly welcomed into the school community, full of students from all over the world and concerning the staff, I have never met such friendly French people"

Liz Jacobs

"The entire staff at LSF is kind and welcoming and helpful. You get the impression they are glad the students are there and want to help them not just with school issues, but in helping them enjoy the whole experience in France."

Marsh Peters

"The teachers were absolutely fantastic - you can tell they are really passionate about their work, and I loved the way they correct mistakes and answer questions thoroughly, without making you feel silly."

Kate Paine

"There was no prejudice and welcomed all ages, and I genuinely felt so well placed with my host family - I still miss them even now !"
